factories for war supplies, and with give. frequent news of hasty construction of new factories to turn out similar material, how would it do for Secretary of Commerce Redfield to repeat that assertion of his that the Democratic party "brought the country through the most terrible commercial shock in its history and landed it safely and strong upon the ed it safely and strong upon the peaceful shores of prosperity?"

That was certainly a sonorous and well-rounded sentence, but even the Democratic press cannot avoid telling the truth as to the real agency in bringing back whatever degree of prosperity we are now enjoying after that "most terrible commercial shock."

Spineless.

Mr. Wilson has done one thing no reathe easier, now that the June brides are have existed at that period, and they are of excellent workmanship. Most of them are of bronze which was regarded as a sacred metal: Where steel was essential, a piece of bronze was set into the instrument supposedly for ceremonious reasons.

Pacific coast have been closed down or running on short time. Logging camps have been idle and the wheels of shingle mills do not turn. During the month of March, 1913, under a protective tariff, imports of shingles into the United States amounted to only $60,000. During the same to the last the imports increased month in 1914, the imports increased to $195,000, and in March, 1915, to $244,000—more than four times the How is it that the ocean glides amount of the imports under a protective tariff.

It is one more acknowledgment of the superiority of Republican ideas. But Burleson had plenty of bad company, for every danger of the House who voted at all, recorded his vote against the measure.

Cause of Upset Balance.
In an editorial in its issue of June 17, the Christian Science Monitors says that "in a year when depression seized upon many of Canada's leading industries, among those that assisted materially to prevent a complete upset of the balance was lumber production."

This brief statement should be of great interest to the American people. A brief consideration of Imporstitistics shows why lumbering has been so material a factor in maintaining business in Canada at a time when that industry is paralyzed in the United States. Some Admission.

In his last annual report, Postmaster General Burleson presented statistics showing the steady growth in postal savings deposits and then said: "These facts afford conclusive proof that the practical operations of postal savings in this country have amply fulfilled the predictions of its advocates."
